

Vintia

Negroamaro Salento IGP

Vintia is a whim of the wind, stubborn son of sirocco and north wind. Salento's wind, which shakes the vines and caresses the stones. Vintia is an ageless little earthy whim, good only to make us wine, is thirsty root that digs until the sea reaches. Vintia is a never-ending love whim, written angrily on the walls of rocks at the confines of the world. Vintia is a whim...

Vine: Negroamaro

Production Area: Salento

Age of vineyards: 30/40 years

Cultivation system: shrub-type and espalier

Stumps per hectare: 5000/6000

Grape yield per hectare: 60/80 quintals

Grape harvest: October

Wine ageing: barrique 6/9 months - stainless steel tanks - bottle

Alcoholic content: 13,5% Vol.

WINE PAIRINGS

Ideal with roasted red meat and seasoned cheeses.